

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, S. B. BUCKNER, of Hart County. FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, J. W. BRYAN, of Kenton County. FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL, P. W. HARDIN, of Mercer County. FOR AUDITOR, FAYETTE HEWITT, of Harlan County. FOR TREASURER, JAS. W. TATE, of Woodford County. FOR Supt. Public Instruction, JOS. DESHA PICKETT, of Fayette County. FOR REGISTRAR OF THE LAND OFFICE, THOMAS H. CORBETT, of McCracken County. FOR STATE SENATOR, SIXTH DISTRICT, ZENO F. YOUNG, of Hopkins County.

The Ohio Republican Convention is in session this week, at Toledo.

Democrats, go to the polls Monday and vote your ticket from top to bottom.

President Cleveland has accepted invitations to visit St. Louis and Atlanta during the month of October.

Lansford owns four or five farms. This explains why he had such an abiding interest in the poor landlord.

Voters of every party cast your ballots for the constitutional convention. That is one thing we can all vote for.

Boys, who will cast your first votes next Monday, start right in life by voting the straight Democratic ticket.

Colored men, if you want to try your fortunes with the Democratic party, make a start Monday by voting the State ticket.

Democrats, there are over 2,700 of you in Christian county and let not one of you fail to record a vote next Monday for the whole ticket.

If you are a brave man, vote against Lansford because he sent a substitute into the Federal Army instead of fighting for his convictions.

Mrs. Richard Greenlaw, of Memphis, Tenn., gave birth to four children on the 24th inst. The mother and babes were doing well at last accounts.

John Taylor, President of the Mormon church, died at Salt Lake City Tuesday leaving several widows. He had been hiding out for some time to escape arrest for polygamy.

The Democratic ticket presented to the people of this county is headed by a Confederate General and ends with a Federal soldier. Thank God, the war is over.

John Sherman has captured the Ohio Republican convention and is permanent chairman of the body. A strong minority of Union men are doing some vigorous kicking.

Allen Allenworth after vainly trying to get an office under three republican administrations, was given the long-sought position of chaplain in the Army by President Cleveland. Colored men, your best friends are in the Democratic party.

Republicans if you are tired of your poor old corrupt party, that has been repudiated by the country, leave the sinking ship and come into the Democratic fold. The doors are open and young men especially are invited to join the party of progress and the people.

Republicans who are trying to make Democrats vote against Zeno Young because he was a Federal soldier should remember that Kentucky has a Lieutenant Governor elected by Democratic votes who is an ex-Federal officer and that sensible men of all parties realize that the war has been over for 22 years.

In 1868 Mr. W. O. Bradley withdrew his subscription to the Danville Advocate because that newspaper very properly favored the admission of negro testimony in the courts of Kentucky. To-day this same Mr. W. O. Bradley is the republican candidate for Governor of Kentucky, and begs the language in finding words that will properly designate his love for the negro and his detestation of the Democratic party, of which he has been an honored member.—Courier Journal.

Whatever may be said by unscrupulous Republicans, Zeno Young for many years has been a faithful, consistent, fighting Democrat. He has earned the respect and the gratitude of the Democratic party of Hopkins county, and he is entitled to the active support of every member thereof. Mr. Young has views upon all questions and never shrinks an expression of them on account of policy or cowardice. He knows nothing of either policy or cowardice. He is brave, truly, honest, truthful and intellectually capacitated to adorn a higher place than State Senator. He will be elected to the Senate, and the people of Hopkins county will be proud of him.—Mallonsville Times.

A MILLIONAIRE'S DEATH.

Unexpected Death of Dr. Standford.

Dr. E. D. Standford, the wealthiest man in Kentucky and a candidate for Senator against Mr. Beck, died suddenly at Louisville on the morning of the 26th, of liver troubles.

Elisha D. Standford was born near Louisville Dec. 28, 1831, and received a good business education in the city schools of Louisville. He studied medicine and practiced that profession in Louisville for several years. He afterwards went into commercial business and politics. He was President of the L. & N. Railroad Co., and other large business enterprises for several years. In 1868 he was elected to the State Senate, re-elected in 1872 and served one term in Congress.

He was twice married. His first wife was Miss Mary Neal and by her he leaves five grown children, viz: Mrs. Jas. Caldwell, Mrs. Murray Kellar, Mrs. Geo. L. Danforth, Frank and Virginia, the last two unmarried. Frank is 22 and the daughter 15 years old. His second wife was Miss Lily Egghill and by her he leaves two children, Nettie and E. D. Jr., aged respectively 10 and 8 years. His second wife died about two years ago. On the 7th of the present month Dr. S. was married the third time to Miss Lorena Scott, a young lady of Paducah, but 26 years of age. The young bride after 19 days of wedded life finds herself a widow, and worth half a million. As Dr. Standford left no will his wife will get one-third of his immense fortune, unless a marriage contract was entered into.

The deceased was a prominent candidate for the U. S. Senate and had engaged one of the principal hotels of Frankfort for the use of his friends and managers next winter. He would undoubtedly have made a strong race and his death will probably have the effect of bringing out several new candidates, as his friends were making the race in many districts on the ground of their opposition to Beck.

SOME REASONS.

If you are a tenant, vote against Lansford because he favored a landlord's lien bill which confiscated a tenant's growing crop.

If you are a miner, vote against Lansford because he voted against withdrawing convicts from the coal mines and voted for the ten year convict labor bill.

If you are a taxpayer, vote against Lansford because he voted for a standing army and other expensive measures.

If you are a workman, vote against Lansford because he opposed every measure looking to the amelioration of the condition of workmen introduced in the last Legislature.

If you have children, vote against Lansford, because he voted in favor of working children in coal mines and factories.

If you want money for your work, vote against Lansford because he refused to vote for the bill requiring mines to be paid in money instead of orders.

If you want capable Legislators elected, vote against Lansford because he was one of the most incompetent members of the last Legislature and is not fit to be Senator.

The Artful Dodger.

Lansford has persistently and systematically dodged Young in the canvass of the district and has never once met him at any appointment.

It was bushwacking in Hopkins county last week and got home late Sunday night. His friends put in the auspicious plea Monday that his wife was sick and he regretted very much that he could not meet Young at his Christian county appointment. No sooner had the latter gone to the country, than Mr. Lansford's wife recovered as suddenly as she was taken sick and he turned up in this city Wednesday morning. He was in the city when Mr. Young left for Lafayette and although he had been invited to meet him at all of his appointments he remained in this city Wednesday and is doubtless still in the county. If so we again challenge him on behalf of Mr. Young to hold a joint discussion at Bainbridge today and at Crofton and Empire tomorrow. Come out Mr. Lansford and if you can't speak you can read your apology for voting for convict labor, and explain why you voted for the landlord's lien and other bad bills.

A Leading Merchant's Testimony.

Mr. D. J. Hyneman is the leading grocer of Corbin, Mis. He stands as high socially and financially as he does as a man of strict integrity. He tells how his little daughter was cured of eczema. Any one who wishes to hear more of the case, can do so by addressing the gentleman a polite request for the details of the case. Here is a letter from Mr. Hyneman on the subject: My little daughter had eczema some time ago. On recommendation of a physician, I gave her S. S. S. At once the effect of the medicine made her break out worse than she was at first, thus driving out the disease through the skin. She is now about well, only a spot here and there occasionally showing. I regard S. S. S. as very effective in eczema, and recommend it unhesitatingly to my neighbors as a splendid blood purifier. Yours truly, D. J. HYNEMAN.

The Kentucky Whisky Product.

The total production of spirits of all kinds in Kentucky during the season ending June 30, 1887, is estimated by a leading trade authority at 19,281,812 gallons, as against 20,572,132 gallons in the year 1886-6. A decrease is here shown of 1,290,320 gallons. The first six months of the 1886-7 season witnessed a production larger than the same period in 1885-6, but since January last this year the decline has been steady and heavy. On July 1st the total amount of 1886-7 whisky in bond was estimated at 14,719,991 gallons. The total crop of straight Kentucky whiskies for the season just closed is placed at 12,715,000, against 16,750,000 gallons in 1885-6.

Lansford's Circular.

Mr. Lansford has issued a circular address to the voters of the district setting forth his "views" and for the purpose of letting the people know that he has "views" to express, even at this late day, we will give him the benefit of a free advertisement.

To begin with, Mr. Lansford tells how his party, overflowing with gratitude to and admiration for him and desirous of endorsing his convict record in the Legislature, dragged him into the contest against his will. He regrets that he has no organ to express his views in, when it is a fact that he has been invited time and again to set forth his ideas in the columns of his opponent's own paper and this paper, free of charge.

He attempts to ridicule the military record of his opponent, which has been made an issue wherever it was thought the fact of his having been a Federal soldier would deprive him of the support of ex-Confederate Democrats. He also belittles the services of his own substitute, by regretting that he is himself without military fame.

Mr. Lansford stultifies himself by attempting to impeach Mr. Young's democracy, because he was a Republican until 1876. Eleven years ago Mr. Young left the Republican party when hundreds of decent men were driven from it by the Helms' revelations and other corrupt disclosures and cast his first Democratic vote for Tilden and McKenzle. Since that time he has been a leader of his party in Hopkins county and there is no better Democrat in the county.

Lansford next proceeds to deny that he favored convict labor and takes about one fourth of his circular to explain why he voted for the convict bill. After reviewing the situation when the bill came up in the last Legislature he says: "The question as to what was best to do was one difficult of solution. The bill that my opponent charges me with supporting, was supported by active and influential advocates and friends of free labor and we thought it was the best that could be done at the time and under the peculiar circumstances of the case."

Thus we have the spectacle of a bold denial at the start merged into a pitiful, whining confession a little further on. The facts are that Lansford voted against Thomas' resolution calling for the removal of the convicts from the Central City mines and afterwards voted for the ten year bill. The writer of Mr. Lansford's circular knew this, because he was in Frankfort as the correspondent of a Louisville paper at the time, and yet he undertakes to deceive the people and create the impression that Lansford did not vote for the working of convicts in competition with free labor.

He wisely makes no attempt to deny that he voted for increasing the military force, for child labor, and for the landlord's lien bill. Nor does he explain why he dodged a vote on the anti-crip bill for the benefit of miners.

The most notable thing about the circular is that it makes Mr. Lansford take a position upon the much vexed prohibition question. Here is what he is made to say: "In matters of a local character, affecting the moral condition and welfare of the people, or the police, I will endeavor to be guided by my judgment by the popular sentiment and expressed wish of the people."

This of course means that the prohibition law is not to be interfered with, since it is the "expressed wish of the people" that prohibition should obtain. Driven to the wall he has been forced to take a position which does not differ materially from that taken by his opponent. But what is to become of the wet votes pledged to Mr. Lansford upon the idea that he was making this vote as he made his last one—as a whisky candidate?

WASHED HIS HANDS.

Why Mr. G. Gibbons left the Flapjack Boarding-House in disgust. "How are you and the widow Flapjack coming on?" inquired Gas De Smith of Gibbons. "I've quit the boarding-house, and am camping out for the present."

"Why, what's the matter now?" "I had a fuss with one of the negro waiters and knocked him down couple or three times."

"What was that for?" "All on account of a glass of milk."

"O, no; the milk was all, sweet and cool enough, but when I had about half finished my glass I found a big cockroach in the milk. I called the negro's attention to it, and he said: 'Cockroaches is de milk, said Can't be dat dat's any roaches in dat milk. Why I recopied out four big ones afore I bring it to yer.'"

"Did you put your fingers in my milk?" I inquired, and the fellow said: "Yes, sah, I did, but I washes my hands ebery mornin'."

"When I rebuked him with a chair Mrs. Flapjack put in her mouth, and packing up my extra cold collar I withdrew from the establishment, without overt finishing the glass of milk."

A well-known European collector of ancient gems has just sent to this country fourteen antique turquoise pebbles, collected in different parts of Persia. They are curiously engraved with letters from the Koran, hallowed with gold. The pebbles are so old that the turquoise blue has faded and in some parts it has become almost white. They are shaped irregularly, with the exception of two or three which are like the designs seen in enameled work. They will be made into a necklace, and the lady who can secure it will possess a veritable antique which will be the envy of all her friends.—Jewelers' Weekly.

KANSAS' BLIND TIGERS.

Their Laire, and Fire Water can be had there in Abundance.

The Murray law has nullified recently been enforced in all cities in Kansas, but lately the officers of the law are relaxing their vigilance somewhat, and now complaints are pouring in from all sides of the non-enforcement of the law. At Kiowa, Colliage, Garden City, Winfield, Arkansas City, Hutchinson and Dodge City complaints are made that it is a very easy matter for one to obtain all the liquor he desires to drink. At Kiowa the saloons are running wide open. In several cities in the State what is known as the "blind tiger" is the liquor he desires to drink. At Kiowa the saloons are running wide open. In several cities in the State what is known as the "blind tiger" is the liquor he desires to drink.

"The other day when I was out in Western Kansas in a town of not over 500 people, I asked the hotel proprietor if there was any place where I could obtain some beer. He pointed significantly to a little dug-out in the rear of the hotel and motioned me to go ahead. I did, and passing five or six steps I entered a room about five feet below the surface of the earth, ten feet long by six feet wide. Looking around on either side of me was the dirt wall, but gazing ahead was a partition dividing the room. In the center of this partition, midway from the floor to the ceiling, was a revolving cylinder divided into compartments. Above this 'wheel,' as it was called, were printed the following words on a placard:

PUT YOUR MONEY On the wheel. For choice you come back. Best for bottle. Best for glass. Best for brandy. 1 drink for 10.

"I went down into my pocket, and finding among the ruins a 50-cent piece, I placed it on the wheel in one of the compartments. In a clear distinct tone of voice I said: "One bottle of beer, please"

"For a second silence reigned supreme in the cave-like saloon. I soon heard a creaking sound, the wheel revolved and my 50-cent piece disappeared from view. For the space of several minutes I heard nothing, then the wheel revolved once more and before my astonished gaze rested a bottle of beer, a glass, and a 10-cent piece, the glass being in one compartment and the beer in the other. I drank the forbidden fluid in silence, and placing the empty glass and bottle back in the compartments of the wheel I saw them whisked from my sight and then I withdrew.

"Now, at no time was the party who sold me the liquor visible, and it would be impossible for me to swear who or what he was. The partition which divided the cave and behind which the unknown seller transacted his business was very tight, having but one crack in it. I looked through this, striving to see what was behind the mysterious partition, but I could see but one thing, and that was a government license from the Internal Revenue office at Leavenworth.

"As I wended my way back to the hotel I thought that the blind tiger was about as clever a device as I had yet seen, by the aid of which thirty millions were caused to evade the prohibitory law and thirty saloon keepers were enabled to violate it in security."

"We say at night, 'Would God the day were here.' And so say at dawn, 'Would God the day were dead.' How well Swinburn has emphasized the feeling of thousands of our fairest daughters, who are but one crack in the law's forbidden wall. But, instead of the anguish of despair, what a song of joy ascends from the hearts of those ladies who have had Dr. Pierce's 'Favorite Prescription' for the cure of their ailments. It is positive remedy for those derangements, irregularities and weaknesses so common to our best female population. Prices reduced to one dollar. By druggists.
